DETAILED ACTIONDouble Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 19-26 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,615,892. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because it is obvious that the method of claim 19 must be performed by the apparatus of claim 1 of U.S. Patent 6,615,892. It is noted that U.S. Patent 6,615,892 is the parent case of the present application and double patenting is generally not applied to a parent case, however in this instance it is appropriate because if claim 19 of the present application and claim 1 of the patent had been originally presented at the time of filing the application a restriction requirement would not have been made. The apparatus of claim 1 of the patent necessarily performs the method of claim 19 of the application and the method of claim 19 of the application is necessarily performed by the apparatus of claim 1 of the patent.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 19-26 would be allowable for the reasons noted in the previous office action if a terminal disclaimer is filed to overcome the obviousness type double patenting rejection.
